

CHORUS

...(HEY!) ...

*Come lift your voice to sing
And let your hallelujahs ring
To the maker of creation,
Jesus, Lord of everything,
Come praise the Risen Son
Angels and Bride now sing
“Praise Father, Son and Spirit
For the blessings that they bring!” (HEY!)*

VERSE 1

Accepted and beloved as God’s child I am set free,
An heir of Abraham
I am victorious, that’s me
Alive with Christ and reconciled with God for all to see I’m free from condemnation and a living stone, that’s key!

^{v 2} Now saved by grace through faith
I have been sanctified, made whole,
Sealed with the Spirit's promise, moved not just by what I see,
In faith I'll walk, yes not by sight,
complete in Him I'll be,
An heir of life eternal,
With His image seen in me!

MID 8

Chosen, beloved,
God's child I'm called to be,
Forgiven, redeemed
and now justified, that's me!
And led by God's Spirit,
A conqueror I'll be,
The apple of my Father's eye,
I know I've been set free!

Seek God’s guidance to pick some scriptures to pray over each other as a blessing, taking turns so that everybody both receives and brings one. Make sure you include their name ... For example “Paul, you are ... accepted in the beloved (Ephesians 1:6) .. take hold of this blessing in Jesu’s name” – and ensure that you speak slowly and clearly. The person receiving the blessing might like to kneel/bow their head and the person giving the blessing might want to lay a hand on their head as they say the blessing, as an outward sign that we want God’s Spirit to witness the giving and make it real in the receiver’s heart
