

Worth much more than our food,
Worth much more than our clothes,
Is the gift we've received of God's kingdom Worth much more than the trappings of wealth and of power,
As God's child we've no fear for the future.

See Luke 12:22-34 and Isaiah 40:31

*Find strength that's renewed,
Soar on wings like the eagle,
Soul safe from the thieves that would steal.
May our hearts seek the Lord,
With the Father's love fill,
Bringing blessings both now and eternal.*
