

Rainbow through the rain – Anne Bailey

Sunshine thro' the rain
The love of God mingled with His pain
As He looks down on our sin and shame:
A rainbow through the rain.

Hope had almost gone
We stood condemned by the things we'd done
'Til our God gave us His only Son:
Compassion lights the sky.

*No place to hide, nowhere to run,
We stood condemned
by the things we had done.
God showed His love
He showed His mercy and grace
By sending Jesus His Son
Who would die in our place.*

Sunshine thro' the rain
The love of God mingled with His pain
As He looks down on our sin and shame:
A rainbow through the rain;
God's rainbow through the rain.
