

A man's life – Anne Bailey

*A man's life does not consist
In the abundance of his wealth.
A man's life has much more worth
It's something more, it's something else.*

Gaze at creation, look up at the stars
And see all the wonders in space;
There's purpose and meaning in what God has made
And everything's set in its rightful place.

*A man's life does not consist
In the abundance of his wealth.
A man's life has much more worth
It's something more, it's something else.*

We were created to care for God's world,
Look after the things He has made
Have fellowship with our Creator,
To live in His presence, to worship God.

*A man's life does not consist
In the abundance of his wealth.
A man's life has much more worth
It's something more, it's something else
Than just abundance of his wealth!*
