

Come lift your voice to sing, by Paul G. Barnsley

*(HEY!) ... Come lift your voice to sing
And let your hallelujahs ring
To the maker of creation,
Jesus, Lord of everything,
Come praise the Risen Son,
Angels and Bride now sing;
“Praise Father, Son and Spirit
For the blessings that they bring!”... (HEY!)*

Accepted and beloved as God's child I am set free,
An heir of Abraham, I am victorious, that's me
Alive with Christ and reconciled with God for all to see
I'm free from condemnation and a living stone, that's key!

Come lift your voice to sing..

Now saved by grace through faith
I have been sanctified, made whole,
Sealed with the Spirit's promise,
moved not just by what I see,
In faith I'll walk, yes not by sight, complete in Him I'll be,
An heir of life eternal, with His image seen in me!

Come lift your voice to sing..

Chosen, beloved, God's child I'm called to be,
Forgiven, redeemed and now justified, that's me!
And led by God's Spirit, a conqueror I'll be,
The apple of my Father's eye, I know I've been set free!

Come lift your voice to sing..
