

Worth much more – by Paul G. Barnsley

Worth much more than our food,
Worth much more than our clothes,
Is the gift we've received of God's kingdom,
Worth much more than the trappings
of wealth and of power,
As God's child we've no fear for the future.

*Find strength that's renewed,
Soar on wings like the eagle,
Soul safe from the thieves that would steal.*

*May our hearts seek the Lord,
With the Father's love fill,
Bringing blessings both now and eternal.*

Written to encourage Caroline Shevelan and friends at the 2012 ARC Renewal Camp held at Beverley Park, Harrogate, whose theme was "Do not be afraid little flock, for the Father has given you the kingdom". See Luke 12:22-34 and Isaiah 40:31.
