

We're pressing forwards

We're pressing forwards, like the saints who went before,
Looking outwards, through God's eyes of love once more,
Searching inwards as His Spirit fills our lives:
We're praying for revival in our hearts.

We're moving onwards, claiming back God's holy ground
Bowing downwards in humility to ask
For forgiveness of the Church we've led astray:
We're praying for revival in this land.

And as we join in unity Your Spirit's oil pours forth
Its healing balm upon each harden'd heart,
Convicting all of sinfulness, assuring all of grace:
Throughout the earth Your praise will be proclaimed!

We're pressing forwards...

See Philippians 3:12, Isaiah 57:15, Psalm 133:2
© Jan 2006, Paul G. Barnsley, Heart Notes Ministries, v1
Web Distribution www.heartnotes.org.uk