

A Baby is Born

1. A baby is born on a night so still, as shepherds keep watch on a lonely hill,
The sky becomes bright as the angels sing to herald the birth of an infant king,
We go to the manger with reverence and awe
To welcome the baby the shepherds first saw.
2. "Do not be afraid, glad tidings we bring, in Bethlehem's stable is born your King!"
His name is wonderful, counselor, God. Sent from the Father to show us His love.
We go to the manger to worship him now
And offer our love as before him we bow.
3. In lands far away wise men scan the sky seeking a sign that salvation is nigh.
The gifts that they bring are costly & rare but fit for the one who our sins will bear.
We come to the manger, our offerings to bring
To worship the babe who was born to be King.
4. God so loved the world, He sent us His Son and as we believe our salvation is won.
He bore all our sins when He died on the tree, lifting our burden and setting us free.
From manger to Calvary and risen again
Our King sits in glory forever to reign.
A baby is born.
