

Go to the Stable

Join the host of angels, your voices raise
To welcome the baby boy.
Christmas is here, let us sing his praise
Christmas is a time for joy.

*So clap your hands (x x) give thanks and sing
Go to the stable and seek the King
Spread glad tidings of the Saviour's birth
God's only Son has come down to earth.*

Happy were the shepherds upon the hill
Joyful was the angel's song.
"Peace on the earth to men of good will"
"Glory!" sang the angel throng.

*So clap your hands (x x) give thanks and sing
Go to the stable and seek the King
Spread glad tidings of the Saviour's birth
God's only Son has come down to earth.*

Let us hurry down into Bethlehem
Let us go and seek the babe.
The Lord of Heaven now dwells with men
Born to die, our souls to save.

*So clap your hands (x x) give thanks and sing
Go to the stable and seek the King
Spread glad tidings of the Saviour's birth
God's only Son has come down to earth.
God's only Son has come down to earth.
God's only Son has come down to earth.*

Matthew 1 v.18-25

Luke 2 v.1-7

Words : B. Hagerty

Music: Bill Watson

© July 1994, Bill Watson

Web distribution www.heartnotes.org.uk